SCOUTING NEWS

All of the Scouts enjoyed the Scout Sunday service and also providing coffee hour. We sure you all enjoyed it as well.

The Troop is currently working on requirements for merit badges and helping our newest scouts with their rank requirements. They will be attending an Escape Room during the month. Let's hope they make it out of their adventure. In March Eagle Scout Joshua Vogeler will be awarded his Eagle Rank at his Eagle Court of Honor. The leaders of the troop are currently narrowing down their selection on a trailer for the units.

The Venture Crew went to an Escape Room after Scout Sunday. They all escaped the Submarine Voyage and the Mystery Mansion with several minutes to go. Miciah Thacker will be receiving her Summit Award in early April at her Summit Court of Honor. Summit Award is the highest award at the Venturing Level of Scouting.

We are all very proud of Joshua and Miciah on their great accomplishments.

The past several months have been busy here at the Learning Center. Registration is currently open for the 2022/2023 school year! Please spread the word as classes are filling up! We are excited to announce our newest program which will begin in September. This class will be designed for children who are 2.5 years old. You can check out our website stpaulearlylearningcenter.com to obtain information on everything we offer!

During the month of March, we will have some guests. Moms or Grandmas of our students will be invited to a Moments with Mom program. These special ladies will join us for breakfast, songs, and games. It is always nice to take a break and enjoy time with them!

The 2nd annual Easter Egg-Stravaganza is being planned. Last year, over 100 cars drove through the parking lot for some socially distanced fun! I hear that the Easter Bunny will be joining us! Stay tuned for more information as it gets closer.

Thank You

A big thank you for my Worship Team members!! Lois Bates and Vicky Ritz for assisting to manage the ushers each week and seeing that our paraments were properly changed while I've been recovering. I am extremely grateful they knew just what to do during the holidays...both are experts in these roles...and I'll get trained from The Best when I come back.

Also a sincere thank you to Carol Chalfin, who continues to take care of us all during Communion Sundays and special Church Holidays with the preparation of the Bread and Wine. She's done this for so long and is the expert on those bread cubes. God has blessed us with her as His dedicated servant to others.

Thank you All for your prayers, the meals, driving me to appointments, and staying to babysit me the first 2 weeks after surgery. You continue to make me feel loved and cared for and may God bless you for your kindness. I've been MIA for many months and still have several challenges that the doctors are working on to get me back to "perky" again. Sometimes we just can't rush God; He has His own timeline.

In Christian Love,

Trudy Jester
